Note To Approver refrigerator for laboratory use for research by Dr. Malin Pinsky, a new professor in our department, using start-up funds; this model was selected due to cost-effectiveness, manual defrost (required to keep scientific items at constant temperatures); we checked with Eleanor Bullock in purchasing who indicated this could be ordered as a quick and did not need to meet any particular specifications; we phoned REHS who also indicated that it did not need to meet particular specifications if it did not house flammables, which it will not. This does not require special facilities hook-up. Delivery fee based on current phone call to Sears and prior orders placed.
